Acclaimed Brazilian soccer professional, Carlos Basso, has amassed over twenty years coaching experience with a passion to develop player potential. Carlos' love for 'the beautiful game' is evidenced by a distinguished professional career as a player and a mentor to hone the skills necessary to participate at the highest competitive levels. Carlos is a certified instructor holding CBF Brazilian National A, Cal South Coaching licenses, and USFF State Futsal licenses.

Born in Sao Paulo Brazil, Carlos played as a youth on Sao Paulo and Palmeira's Football Clubs, competing as a member of the Brazilian ODP at seventeen years of age, before moving the U.S as a professional player with the San Diego Sockers, Milwaukee Waves and Tulsa Ambush. Representing the U.S in six international Futsal Championships, Carlos led his team to the National Championship title in 2004 as a coach and player. he coached his girls U14 team to a National Futsal Championship in 2010 and 2011.

Guided by years of expertise playing and teaching the sport, Carlos is renowned for cultivating player technique to high levels of accomplishment through personal development lessons.

As head coach with the TVSA Hawks Soccer Club in Southern California for the past seventeen years, Carlos' finesse and devotion to the sport has spawned innovative coaching methodologies to guide players to the right game. Earning many achievements, Carlos has driven his players to an elite level in United States developmental soccer. In 2002, he received coach of the year award from the golden rule in youth sports and was honored with a prestigious Cal South excellence in coaching award in 2016.
