International Soccer tours are super fun, enable teenagers to see the world through soccer and take a first step to becoming a global citizen.

During Gothia Cup all participants will stay at the same hotel, the Grand Oasis in Cancun.

Making this the perfect place for everyone to come together, meet new friends and socialize. With the ocean, pools, restaurants and fun activities there will always be something to do.

The hotel is located right at the beach with plenty of space for everyone. After the matches you can take a swim and enjoy the crystal blue water. There are multiple pools available, with the biggest one being 400 meters long. So if you're not in the mood for the ocean and the white sand there is still a place for you to take a swim.
